THE ELLIOT DIVORCE CASE.

Testimony of the Wife Taken Before Referee
F. W. Little.

There was No Contest, and the Clerk
Will Recommend to the Court the Granting of a Decree.

Deputy Clerk F. W. Little, sitting as referee, on Saturday took testimony in the divorce case of Clara J. Elliot vs. Peter Elliot, and will recommend to Judge Hiles the granting of an absolute decree. No alimony was asked for. Mrs. Elliot testified that she married the defendant at Farmington, Davis county, in November, 1888. For more than a year past, she further stated, the defendant had neglected to provide her with the common necessities of life, compelling her to live upon the charity of friends and depend upon her own labor for support. There are no children, except those of a former marriage. The defendant was not present at the hearing, neither was he represented.

Attorney James F. Smith appeared for Mrs. Elliot.

WANTED TO KISS THE JUDGE.

Humorous Proceedings in the Criminal Court Room.

Louis Wilkes, a 15-year-old boy, said to be a native of Utah, appeared before Judge Norrell Saturday on the charge of petit larceny. A week ago the lad was held to the district court by Police Judge Timm with a view of having him committed to the reform school. His offense was the stealing of 25 cents out of a till in the office of Attorney Pierce, Critchlow & Barrette in the McCormick block. His attorney, James F. Smith, made such a strong plea in the youngster's behalf that Judge Norrell, upon the defendant's promise to behave himself in future, ordered his release from custody.

Immediately after the court had announced its decision a regular kissing match was started by the boy and his parents. The mother grabbed Prosecutor Van Cott and kissed his hand, causing her to blush like a girl; the father took hold of Deputy Sheriff Sam Dowse and tried to kiss his big fat hand, but Sam would have it and told Wilkes senior to "go away."

Young Wilkes made for Judge Norrell, and after thanking him for his kindness, reached for his right hand. The judge, not knowing what the lad was up to, turned away. Clark Rawlins, thinking his turn would come next, picked up his books and made for the court. Stenographer Pike lit a cigar, and in a low tone of voice informed those near him, "This is my busy day."

The trio then bowed themselves out of the court room, their faces wreathed in smiles.

The parents are required to report with their boy at the county attorney's office every Saturday until further notice.

Wife's Divorce Suit.

Jennie W. MacBride filed a divorce suit against Henry R. L. MacBride in the Third district court today, alleging that the marriage took place in St. Louis on November 23, 1887, and that

"Necessity Knows No Law."

But a law of Nature bows
to the necessity of keeping the blood pure so that the entire system shall be strong,
healthy and vigorous.

To take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is therefore a law of health and it is a necessity in nearly every household.
It never disappoints.

Blood Disorders—"My step-daughter and I have both been troubled greatly with blood disorders and stomach troubles, and several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla have been of great benefit." James F. Thompson, Wilmington, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure the blood, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For more than one year the defendant has failed to provide for plaintiff and their 15-year-old child. The defendant is a resident of St. Louis, and his wife, the custody of the child, asks to be in addition to a decree of divorce and restored to her maiden name, that of Jennie Wolf Armstrong.

UTAH HONORS HER WOMEN.

What a Kansas Paper Has to Say of Mrs. Joseph M. Cohen.

Truth's (Kas.) Replex: Utah enjoys the proud distinction of being the first State in the Union to send a woman delegate to a national convention.

Mrs. J. M. Cohen, of Salt Lake City, bears this honor with becoming modesty. When she ascended the speaker's platform in the great conventional hall at Kansas City, in a few well chosen words seconded the nomination of Mr. Bryan the convention gave her an enthusiastic reception. Mrs. Cohen is a lady of high culture and true womanly instincts, with an intense love for that which is just and right. There is a quiet and sweet dignity about her that wins people, conferred upon her by her Democratic sisters of Utah. Many are the kind and graceful things that she has said about the people of her adopted State, while attending the convention, and as occasion offered she has done what she could to correct the many wrong impressions that have gone out about the people of Utah.

Following are some extracts taken from an interview with the Times reporter:

"Women are in politics in earnest in Utah, and in the primaries up. And they work hard too. All take an interest in politics and it in no way interferes with their household duties. "We work in harmony with the men's Democratic club, and at no time do we ever attempt to take the lead or dictate, as we believe women should work with men and not antagonize them."

"You would naturally expect that it would be the uncultured class that would avail themselves of the privileges of the ballot, and that the society women would not care to go to the polls to vote. Let me tell you that what she has been the case in Utah. The educated and the society women are the ones that exercised the right of suffrage at the start and now they are all in line."

"I voted for Mr. Roberts because he was the nominee of the Democratic party. As to depriving him of his seat, of course it was unconstitutional. "The 'Mormon' women are among the best women in the world. They are liberal to gentlemen. I owe my election to the 'Mormon' women in our club, and in the party."

"I have never seen in Salt Lake City any of the outrageous actions that are described as taking place at primaries in Eastern and Southern cities. We know here where the influence of women is best felt. I have never heard at the polls in Salt Lake City any improper language or seen any discourtesy to women."

"Men there, bring their drawing room manners to the polls."

"Every man is courteous and respectful. If a man is inclined to use strong language, the presence of women restrains him, and in every way the tone of politics is elevated."

"I am a native New Yorker and came to Utah twenty years ago, and I have been in active politics for five years. I am a Democrat by both marriage and conviction."

Many of them have already made arrangements to get out of the country. The crop this year has not been good and while the people are not as yet distressed, another year's crop unless disastrous. There is some talk of trying to bring in the water from the Sevier river which would give Tropic an abundance of water but it has not as yet been settled as to whether this can be done.

POCATELLOS LOSE TO SHORT LINERS

Played Seven Innings at Walker's
This Morning.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

In the First Five Innings the Pitchers
Hit Five Men—Score Twelve to Seven.

This morning's game between the Short Lines and Pocatello was one of assault and battery. In five innings five men were hit by the pitcher. Asbury, Taylor and Klidder were hit by Lillis, who twirled for the visitors, while Klidder for the Short Lines hit Wilson and Seddon. The Short Lines out-batted the Indians and carried off the honors by a score of 12 to 7. It was a contest devoid of sensational plays although there was some work that called forth applause from the 200 spectators. Eubanks started the thing going by a fly to center, which little Asbury got by a hard run. Kuran came up next and sent one out to left somewhere, which Faithful Kimerer took hold of, while St. John retired the side by fanning the breeze. Asbury came up for the Shorts and got hit by this ball. Taylor went out on a fly to Higson. Kimerer went out from second to first and Taylor went down by being hit. Margets got to first on Lillis' error. Ostler scored the runs in the first by a nice little single, which brought home Taylor and Margets. Out of four times up Ostler got three singles. The Pockies' hits were pretty well scattered. Eubanks got two, one a single and one a double. Kuran also got two singles. The same teams played the eighth inning. Harmon hit pitch for the visitors and Taylor for the home team.

Following is the score of this morning's game:

Short Lines.....	12 3 4 5 6 7
Pocatello.....	0 0 0 0 1 0 7

*Last half of seventh not played.
